PLANNING BOARD NAMES
OLNEY TOWN CENTER ADVISORY COMMITTEE

SILVER SPRING, MD – The Montgomery County Planning Board last evening approved the establishment of the Olney Town Center Advisory Committee by naming 11 members to the group. This committee will work with the Board’s planning staff to create a set of principles and an illustrative understanding of what a future town center would look like to serve as a guide for future redevelopment proposals and implementation of the master plan.

Members of the Olney Town Center Advisory Committee members are:

- John Lyons, Greater Olney Civic Association
- Sunita Bhatia, Olney Coalition
- Dorothy Kane, Project Change
- Walter Lee, Environ Homeowners Association
- Nancy DeLalio, Hollowell Homeowners Association
- Jim Smith, Oatland Farms Homeowners Association
- Mark Feinroth, Williamsburg Village Homeowners Association
- Paula Kahla, Olney Chamber of Commerce
- Tom Gallagher, Freeman Properties
- Jim Wallace, Mid-County Citizens Advisory Board
- Helene Rosenheim, Mid-County Services Center

“We appreciate the commitment that each of these committee members are making to the future of their community and congratulate them on their appointments,” said Derick P. Berlage, Chairman of the Montgomery County Planning Board. “Olney residents and businesses are encouraged to offer their ideas and suggestions to committee members and to get involved in the implementation of the Master Plan for Olney.”
