MONTGOMERY COUNTY PARKS HAVE THE “WHERE” FOR SPECIAL OCCASIONS

SILVER SPRING, MD – Brookside Gardens has just been named by Washingtonian Magazine as one of the region’s best sites for weddings and receptions. Located in Wheaton Regional Park, several Victorian gazebos throughout the gardens provide the perfect setting for outdoor weddings. The reception hall inside the Visitors Center offers up to 125 guests a breath taking view of the gardens.

Brookside Gardens is just one of several locations within the Montgomery County park system that provides the “where” to hold an important business meeting or fantastic social event. Owned and operated by staff of The Maryland-National Capital Park and Planning Commission, these gathering places provide reasonably priced, versatile and beautiful selections for any event. For more information, call the facility or go to www.wehavethewhere.com.
