7 family detached dwelling, or is located in a separate [existing] accessory structure

11 Accessory apartment, large: An accessory apartment that has more than 800, but 12 less than 1,200 square feet of habitable area if a part of a one-family detached

33 Sec. 2. DIVISION 59-A-6 is amended as follows:

34 DIVISION 59-A-6. USES PERMITTED IN MORE THAN ONE CLASS OF 35 ZONE.

36 * * *

37 59-A-6.10. Registered living unit--Standards and requirements.

38 A registered living unit, permitted in[,] agricultural, one-family residential and 39 planned unit development zones, must:

40 * * *

41 (i) be removed whenever it is no longer occupied as a registered living unit
42 unless the owner applies for and is granted a special exception for [an] a 43 large accessory apartment in accordance with Section 59-G-2.00 or the 44 Director finds the unit complies with Section 59-A-6.17, and a license has 45 been issued under Section 29-16, or whenever the one-family detached 46 dwelling [unit] in which it is located is no longer occupied by the owner.

47 * * *

48 59-A-6.17. Accessory apartment.

49 An accessory apartment is permitted on the same lot as a one-family detached 50 dwelling, subject to the following:

51 (a) Dwelling unit requirements:

- 52 (1) An addition or extension to a main dwelling may be approved in
53 order to add additional floor space to accommodate an accessory
54 apartment. All development standards of the zone apply.
- 55 (2) To preserve the appearance of a single-family dwelling:
- 56 (i) The accessory apartment must have the same street address or 57 house number as the main dwelling;
- 58 (ii) An exterior entrance to an accessory apartment must have a less 59 prominent appearance and location than the entrance to the 60 main dwelling.
- 61 (iii) All external modifications and improvements must be 62 compatible with the existing dwelling and surrounding 63 properties.
- 64 (3) The accessory apartment must be subordinate to the main dwelling
65 and the habitable area of the apartment must be no more than 800
66 square feet, if within the main dwelling, or have a footprint of no
67 more than 800 square feet, if in a separate accessory structure. A 68 large accessory apartment may be allowed under 59-G-2.00.
- 69 (4) The occupancy limits of an accessory apartment must be consistent 70 with the requirements of Section 29-19(b).
- 71 (b) Ownership requirements:
- 72 (1) For purposes of this section, "owner" means an individual who owns 73 a substantial equitable interest in the property, or the parent or child 74 of the individual.
- 75 (2) The owner of the lot on which the accessory apartment is located
76 must occupy one of the dwelling units, except for bona fide
77 temporary absences not exceeding 3 months in any 12-month period.

78 The period of temporary absence may be increased by the Director
79 upon a finding that a hardship would otherwise result.

80 (3) The owner may not receive compensation for the occupancy of more 81 than one dwelling unit.

82 (c) Land use requirements:

83 (1) Only one accessory apartment may be created on the same lot as a 84 one-family detached dwelling. An accessory apartment may not be 85 created on the same lot as a mobile home or an attached single 86 family unit.

87 (2) On a lot of less than one acre (43,560 square feet), the accessory 88 apartment must share at least one wall, floor, or ceiling with the 89 main dwelling. On a lot of one acre or more, an accessory apartment
90 may be in a separate accessory structure.

91 (3) The minimum lot size is 6,000 square feet. A property consisting of 92 more than one record lot, including a part of a lot, is to be treated as 93 one lot if it contains a single one-family detached dwelling lawfully
94 constructed before October, 1967. All other development standards
95 of the zone must also apply, including setbacks, lot width, lot
96 coverage, building height and the standards for an accessory
97 building.

98 (4) The accessory apartment must not be located on a lot:

99 (i) Where any of the following residential uses exist: guest room 100 for rent, boardinghouse or a registered living unit; or

101 (ii) With any rental residential use other than an accessory dwelling 102 in an agricultural zone.

103 (5) An accessory apartment must not result in an excessive 104 concentration of similar uses, including single-family rental units, in

105 the general neighborhood of the proposed use. An excessive
106 concentration is reached when the number of accessory apartments,
107 rental single-family units, and other similar uses, equals 15 percent
108 or more of the total number of housing units in the neighborhood. In 109 determining the boundaries of the neighborhood, the Director will 110 take into consideration natural boundaries, including streams, major 111 roads, public facilities, and land in non-residential zones. The 112 Director may exceed the 15 percent requirement if the Director finds 113 that there will be no adverse impact on the neighborhood.

114 (6) Adequate parking must be provided. There must be a minimum of 2
115 off-street parking spaces, unless the Director finds that:

116 (i) More spaces are required to supplement on-street parking; or

117 (ii) Adequate on-street parking permits fewer off-street spaces.

118 Off-street parking spaces may be in a driveway but otherwise must 119 not be located in the yard area between the front of the house and the 120 street right-of-way line. The Director may condition the approval on 121 where parking may be located and may require that certain parking 122 be reserved for tenant use only.

123 (d) For a property which is subject to site plan approval, the Planning Board, 124 in consultation with the Director, may:

125 (1) Allow an accessory apartment to have a separate address;

126 (2) Reduce the minimum lot size for an accessory apartment in a separate 127 structure; and

128 (3) Allow a higher concentration of accessory apartments in a 129 neighborhood.

130 In approving modifications to these requirements, the Planning Board
131 must find that the changes will preserve the character of the neighborhood

132 in which the accessory apartments are located, and that the increased 133 concentration of accessory apartments will not have an adverse impact on 134 the neighborhood.

135 (e) Application. The applicant for an accessory apartment must submit to the 136 Director a completed form; a plan, drawn to scale, showing the location of 137 the main dwelling and all accessory structures on the lot; a floor plan of 138 the accessory apartment; the location and dimensions of all onsite parking
139 spaces and access driveways; the location of anticipated on-street parking;
140 and the names and addresses of the adjoining and confronting property
141 owners and any neighborhood association. Where an accessory apartment
142 is proposed in an existing dwelling, the applicant must submit a
143 photograph of the main dwelling. The Director may require the applicant 144 to provide a copy of the deed or plat map.

145 (f) Notice. At least 30 days before acting on the application, the Director 146 must send written notice to:

- 147 (1) The owners of property that adjoins and confronts the property on 148 which the accessory apartment is proposed;
149 (2) The neighborhood association, where applicable; and 150 (3) The municipality, where applicable.

151 (g) Planning Review. At least 30 days before acting on the application, the 152 Director must provide the technical staff of the Planning Board with a 153 copy of the application. Within 30 days of receiving the application, the 154 technical staff must submit to the Director, on a form provided by the 155 Director, a report indicating whether the proposed accessory apartment
156 complies with Chapter 59 and the applicable master plan.

157 (h) License Required. An accessory apartment is subject to the licensing
158 requirement of Chapter 29.

159 (i) Existing accessory apartment.
160 (1) Any accessory apartment approved by the Board between December 161 2, 1983, and [Effective Date of this ZTA] is a conforming use and 162 may be continued if it complies with the conditions imposed by the 163 Board and all provisions of Chapter 59 at the time that it was 164 approved, and has a license under Chapter 29.

165 (2) The Director may approve a modification to an existing accessory 166 apartment provided the modification is in conformance with the 167 standards and requirements of this section.

168 (j) Executive Regulations. The Director is authorized to adopt Executive 169 Regulations by Method 2 which may:

170 (1) provide for periodic inspections, including access by inspectors at 171 reasonable times, and compliance with applicable codes;

172 (2) establish procedures for initial and continuing compliance of an 173 accessory apartment including provisions for removal or modification
174 when it is no longer being used for purposes set forth in the definition;

175 (3) include such other regulations as may be necessary to carry out the 176 intent of this Section; and

177 (4) establish fees as necessary to cover the cost of administration.

288 Sec. 59-G-2.00. Accessory apartment, large.

289 A special exception may be granted for [an] large accessory apartment on the

291 standards and] dwelling unit, ownership, and land use requirements of Section 59-
292 A-6.17, excluding the limitation on size of the accessory apartment, and the 293 following requirements:

294 [(a) Dwelling unit requirements:

295 (1) Only one accessory apartment may be created on the same lot as an 296 existing one-family detached dwelling.

297 (2) The accessory apartment must have at least one party wall in 298 common with the main dwelling on a lot of one acre (43,560 square 299 feet) or less. On a lot of more than one acre, an accessory apartment 300 may be added to an existing one-family detached dwelling, or may 301 be created through conversion of a separate accessory structure
302 already existing on the same lot as the main dwelling on December
303 2, 1983. An accessory apartment may be permitted in a separate 304 accessory structure built after December 2, 1983, provided:

305 (i) The lot is 2 acres or more in size; and

- 306 (ii) The apartment will house a care-giver found by the Board to be 307 needed to provide assistance to a senior adult, ill or disabled
308 relative of the owner-occupant.
- 309 (3) An addition or extension to a main dwelling may be approved in
310 order to add additional floor space to accommodate an accessory
311 apartment. All development standards of the zone apply. An addition 312 to an accessory structure is not permitted.
- 313 (4) The one-family detached dwelling in which the accessory apartment
314 is to be created or to which it is to be added must be at least 5 years 315 old on the date of application for special exception.
- 316 (5) The accessory apartment must not be located on a lot:
- 317 (i) That is occupied by a family of unrelated persons; or 318 (ii) Where any of the following otherwise allowed residential uses
319 exist: guest room for rent, boardinghouse or a registered living 320 unit; or
321 (iii) That contains any rental residential use other than an accessory 322 dwelling in an agricultural zone.
- 323 (6) Any separate entrance must be located so that the appearance of a 324 single-family dwelling is preserved.
- 325 (7) All external modifications and improvements must be compatible 326 with the existing dwelling and surrounding properties.
- 327 (8) The accessory apartment must have the same street address (house 328 number) as the main dwelling.
- 329 (9) The accessory apartment must be subordinate to the main dwelling.
330 The floor area of the accessory apartment is limited to a maximum 331 of 1,200 square feet. The 1,200 square feet limitation does not apply
332 to an accessory apartment located in a separate existing accessory

333 structure located on the same lot as the main dwelling. The 334 maximum floor area for a separate existing accessory structure must 335 be less than 50 percent of the total floor area of the main dwelling, 336 or 2,500 square feet, whichever is less.

337 (b) Ownership requirements:

- 338 (1) The owner of the lot on which the accessory apartment is located
339 must occupy one of the dwelling units, except for bona fide
340 temporary absences not exceeding 6 months in any 12-month period.
341 The period of temporary absence may be increased by the Board
342 upon a finding that a hardship would otherwise result.
- 343 (2) Except in the case of an accessory apartment that exists at the time 344 of the acquisition of the home by the applicant, one year must have 345 elapsed between the date when the owner purchased the property
346 (settlement date) and the date when the special exception becomes 347 effective. The Board may waive this requirement upon a finding that 348 a hardship would otherwise result.
- 349 (3) Under no circumstances is the owner allowed to receive 350 compensation for the occupancy of more than one dwelling unit.
- 351 (4) For purposes of this section, "owner" means an individual who 352 owns, or whose parent or child owns, a substantial equitable interest 353 in the property as determined by the board.
- 354 (5) The restrictions under (1) and (3) above do not apply if the 355 accessory apartment is occupied by a senior adult who has been a 356 continuous tenant of the accessory apartment for at least 20 years.

357 (c) Land use requirements:

- 358 (1) The minimum lot size is 6,000 square feet, except where the 359 minimum lot size of the zone is larger. A property consisting of 360 more than one record lot, including a fraction of a lot, is to be treated 361 as one lot if it contains a single one-family detached dwelling

362 lawfully constructed prior to October, 1967. All other development
363 standards of the zone must also apply, including setbacks, lot width,
364 lot coverage, building height and the standards for an accessory
365 building in the case of conversion of such a building.

366 (2) An accessory apartment must not, when considered in combination 367 with other existing or approved accessory apartments, result in an 368 excessive concentration of similar uses, including other special 369 exception uses, in the general neighborhood of the proposed use (see 370 also Section 59-G-1.21(a)(7) which concerns excessive 371 concentration of special exceptions in general).

372 (3) Adequate parking must be provided. There must be a minimum of 2
373 off-street parking spaces, unless the Board makes either of the 374 following findings:

375 (i) More spaces are required to supplement on-street parking; or

376 (ii) Adequate on-street parking permits fewer off-street spaces.
