59-C-6.2355. Density Transfer Provisions for properties in an Housing Resource Area that use the Optional Method of Development Procedure

This section includes special standards for optional method of development projects involving more than one lot located in a Housing Resource Area as designated in the applicable master or sector plan.

(a) The Planning Board may approve an optional method of development project for more than one lot in the same Housing Resource Area that are not

1 adjacent to each other but, when combined, the lots total a minimum of 2 18,000 square feet. The optional method of development project must
3 comply with the project plan approval requirements of Section 59-D-2.42(g)
4 and the following additional requirements:

- 5
- 6 (i) The property to which a development credit is transferred must not 7 abut or confront a one-family residential zone.
- 8 (ii) Density transferred to any lot smaller than 18,000 square feet must be 9 used to provide for housing development and ancillary retail and arts
10 uses. Density on the smaller lot must be measured in accordance with 11 the maximum density provisions of the optional method of 12 development.
- 13 (iii) The density of development for the combined lots must not exceed the 14 total density otherwise permitted on the separate lots. Public use
15 space and amenities must be provided based on the total area of the 16 lots included in the optional method of development project.

17

18 (b) A transferable development credit must be established, transferred, and 19 attached to a property only by means of documents, including an easement
20 and appropriate releases, in a recordable form approved by the Planning
21 Board. Any easement must:

- 22 (i) limit future construction of the property that transfers the 23 development credit to the amount of gross square feet of the building
24 minus all development credits transferred;
- 25 (ii) indicate the amount of development credit, in gross square feet to be 26 transferred;

- 1 (iii) indicate the maximum gross square feet of future development for 2 the property that transfers the development credit, but no less than 3 the amount that could be constructed on the property under the 4 standard method of development; and
5 (iv) be recorded in the land records of Montgomery County.

6
7 Sec. 2. Effective date. This ordinance becomes effective 20 days after the 8 date of Council adoption.
